STAY AND MORE

When it comes to planning a trip, accommodation is one of the most important factors... You do not just go to a hotel to sleep. It's location, services, décor and the place itself are a very important part of the decision, with price in second place.

On these pages you will find a selection of small, charming hotels, hostels and apartments and villas, all different but with one common objective: to satisfy the client beyond their expectations.

Every one of them has decided to open its doors during the coldest months of the year, inviting its guests to discover a calmer, more authentic and natural side to Menorca.

Do not hesitate to ask the staff where their favourite places are, for the most chic shops, their favourite restaurant, the best place to have a drink at the end of the day... It is certain that through them, you will discover the local Menorca that the island's residents experience every day.

Welcome to Menorca!

Nando and Anja have reflected all their dreams, their positivity and creativity in it. In short, their passions: for detail, for care, for achieving a family atmosphere.
